RTD will suspend L Line service for Five Points Jazz Festival Saturday

RTD customers are encouraged to explore Bus Route 43 as an alternate service

DENVER (June 7, 2023) — Due to closure of Welton Street during the Five Points Jazz Festival, the Regional Transportation District (RTD) will not provide L Line light rail service between downtown and 30th•Downing Station on Saturday, June 10. L Line customers are encouraged to explore Bus Route 43 as an alternative for service in the affected area. L Line service will resume on Sunday, June 11.

Customers can sign up for Service Alerts for specific route information. Check the RTD website before traveling for schedules and to plan a trip.

An estimated 80,000-100,000 people are expected to gather along Welton Street for the Jazz Festival, an annual celebration of the history of Denver's Five Points neighborhood.

ABOUT RTD

The Regional Transportation District develops, operates and maintains a public transportation system that meets the transit needs of close to 3 million people within an eight-county service area in the Denver Metro region. RTD's buses, rail lines, shuttles and additional services provide approximately 100 million annual passenger trips.
