

Chestnut Pavilion elevator at Union Station to be temporarily out of service beginning Aug. 8 during restroom improvements

Bus terminal elevator access will be available in Wewatta Pavilion while work is underway

DENVER (Aug. 4, 2022) — The Regional Transportation District \(RTD\) will temporarily close the west area of the bus terminal at Union Station on Monday, Aug. 8, for approximately three weeks as part of renovation work to the agency's public restrooms. The closure affects access to the Chestnut Pavilion elevator and water fountains, along with bus bays 11 and 12. The restrooms will reopen to the public later this year.

Customers with disabilities will be directed to access elevator service in Wewatta Pavilion.

Your patience is appreciated as RTD's dedicated team completes these enhancements for the benefit of the entire region. Visit RTD's Restoring DUS webpage for more information on how the agency is restoring a welcoming environment for all who visit, live or work near Union Station.

ABOUT RTD

The Regional Transportation District develops, operates and maintains a public transportation system that meets the transit needs of close to 3 million people within an eight-county service area in the Denver Metro region.
