Want better explanations?
Click on these purple question marks.

Turn on if you want people to know what you've looked at. Most leave it off.

Some members want to talk privately. Check 'yes' to allow this.

CesarOchoa  Registered: 09/27/07 Posts: 14	10/30/07 at 08:06 AM #1 Thanks to Operator comments we looked at BX reverse peak (Boulder Bound a.m., Denver Bound p.m.) running times. They were pretty bad. 10 hours and two buses were added to correct this for the Jan 08 Runboard. Cesar Ochoa Service Planner/Scheduler (North Team) 303.299.2268 cesar.ochoa@rtd-denver.com

Starting a Thread or Posting a Reply.

Format to your heart's content.

New Threads need a subject. Using the abbreviation "Rte", where needed, will make it easier for others to search.

Type constructive comments here. (You catch more flies with honey...) Profanity prevents postings. Details good: Routes, day, direction, time, intersection, dates, frequency of problem, numbers, page, etc.

Add an attachment if need be.

Keep yourself looking smart by checking the spelling before posting.

Post when ready.
